JOHNSTONE DEFIES LYNCH.

Agrees to Umpire for Phillies-Ath- letics Series Despite Order.
PHILADELPHIA, October 7.—In accepting the offer made by President Fogel to officiate as umpire in the series between the Athletics and Phillies, which starts in this city today, Jim Johnstone has defied President Lynch of the National League. Johnstone has consented to be on hand as the official from the National League despite the recent announcement by Lynch that he did not desire an umpire from the other league to take part in the series.

Johnstone sent word to the officials of the Phillies club that he will be on hand to give the decisions. He is aware of the difficulties over umpires between Lynch and Fogel, but announced that his contract as a National League umpire expired with the close of the season and that he is at liberty to appear.

With the securing of a National League umpire all plans are now complete for the series. The initial contest will be played at Globe Park this afternoon.

HARD SCHEDULES FOR LOCAL TEAMS

Georgetown, Maryland Aggies, Catholic U. and Gallaudet
Face Difficult Tasks.

FIRST BIG GAME TO BE PLAYED HERE SATURDAY

Blue and Gray Will Meet Washing- ton and Lee.

None of Four Institutions Likely to Have an Easy Time Win- ning Saturday's Games.

BY H. C. BYRD.

Georgetown will begin its difficult list of games this week. Starting Saturday, the Blue and Gray eleven will meet teams which will not be easy to defeat. So far, the Hilltoppers have not been extended in any game, but there is not much likelihood that they will be able to take things so easily in the future contests.

Washington and Lee will be here this week, and judging by the showing of that eleven so far the Blue and Gray will not be able to get away with the game as easily as it has the ones played already.

The Lexington eleven, while it gave evidence of a rather weak defense last Saturday by allowing a smaller team to score two touchdowns against it, also showed somewhat of a strong offense by rolling up thirty points against its opponents, and it is certain that the Western Maryland eleven which it played is not any weak combination of players.

Georgetown will not run up any 52-to-0 score as it did the last time it met the Blue and White aggregation.

Four days afterward the eleven will go to Raleigh to meet the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College. The North Carolina team has met but one eleven so far, and that was not strong enough to show its real power. It was the team from one of the United States battalions. A. and M. has seldom had a weak aggregation of foot ball players representing it, and there is no reason to believe other than that it will be fairly strong this season. It will not have as capable a combination as that which it has put out for the past three years.

The Lexington eleven, while it gave evidence of a rather weak defense last Saturday by allowing a smaller team to
showed somewhat of a strong offense by

score as it did the last time it met the Indians October 26.

After that contest will come the Car-lele Indians. The Indians failed to defeat the Washington and Jefferson eleven last Saturday, but that is not saying they do not have an exceptionally strong combination.

The defense put up by Washington and Jefferson must have been very strong, notwithstanding the reports to the effect that one or two of the Carlisle stars could have been in better condition. Georgetown may have had to defend against the Indians, but the chances are it will itself be on the losing end of the score, notwithstanding the prediction to the contrary.

Something of Carlisle's real strength may be known when it is considered that it rolled up a score of 34 against Dickinson, while Pennsylvania with its great backfield was able to get but little more than half that many yards.

After the Indian game the Blue and Gray will go to Richmond to meet one of the best teams of the South. Just what North Carolina has this year in the way of a foot ball team is hard to tell, but it is not likely that it will be as strong as represented by any too strong an eleven.

It may have a heavy aggregation, as it has generally in the past, but for knowledge of the team it is hard to tell. It is likely that it will come here with the team which is to be much better than the class of the Blue and Gray.

Two weeks after the North Carolina game Virginia will be played. It is too early to make predictions regarding the game, but it is likely that it will be a close one.

The Virginia Polytechnic Institute is going to make the objective point of its season the Thanksgiving day game with Georgetown. It is enough to make it sure that it will come here with the team which is to be much better than the class of the Blue and Gray.

After the game with Hopkins the Aggies will not be small. As was reported, it was due more to the weakness of the Richmond outfit than it was to any exceptional strength on the part of the Farmers, though they played a very creditable game.

Georgetown will also face a difficult proposition this week when it goes to V. M. I. to meet the eleven representing that institution. The Lexington cadets are reported to be very strong and much heavier than the Kendall Green aggregation.

Gallaudet will likely make a creditable showing, but will probably not win. Gallaudet will start a series Saturday which will tax its strength to the utmost, and which is liable to work hardships with it unless it can develop capable substitutes to take the places of the injured men.

Catholic University has not yet played a single contest, though it will begin Saturday, which is the hardest schedule it

TIGERS OPTIMISTIC.

Feel That Success Awaits Eleven
This Fall.

PRINCETON, N. J., October 7.—There was an optimistic feeling among foot ball men here today as a result of Saturday's decisive victory over Lehigh, but the coaches still see many starting defects in Princeton's inexperienced line. The Tigers will go behind gates for a part of every practice this week.

The Lehigh game showed that the men stand the stiffest kind of work. All of them stood up under the broiling sun in good shape, and substitutes were not used until the last period.

STAR CHARTER FAVORITE.

Figured to Have Best Chance in Four-Mile Run at Churchill Downs.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 7.—The Kentucky endurance stakes race of four miles, said to be the richest American turf event of the year, will be run at Church-hill Downs today. Eleven horses that have been trained to go the long route are expected to face the barrier.

The purse this year will be $15,000, it having been doubled since inauguration of the event at Churchill Downs last year.
Only one horse that ran in that race, Nadzu, is entered today. He ran second to Messenger Boy when the record of 7:14-5 was established. Star Charter, winner of the largest amount of money of any horse in American steeplechase history, is expected to go to the post the favorite.

LIKELY TO OPPOSE ONE ANOTHER IN WORLD'S SERIES OPENER.

JOE WOOD.

WOOD THREATENED IN ANONYMOUS LETTERS

Red Sox Pitcher Has Received
Half a Dozen Mailed in New York City.

NEW YORK, October 7.—Anonymous writers of threatening letters are divided into three classes—practical jokers, cowards and cranks. But nobody is able to classify the writers of half a dozen letters received during the past two weeks by Joe Wood, the star pitcher of the Boston Red Sox. Although the matter has been kept a secret by the Boston management and the players, it leaked out here yesterday and was discussed by several base ball men who know the facts and say they have seen the letters.

Each missive bore a New York postmark. Two of them were filled with bad spelling and were signed illegibly.
Another was written in red ink with a knife and a gun drawn at the bottom of the sheet of paper, it is said.

"You will never live to pitch against the Giants in the world's series! We are waiting to get you as soon as you arrive in town," was one of the boldest threats.

"You better stay in Boston, where you are safe among friends," was another warning.

"Look out for us! We're gunning for you!" said a third letter writer.

Wood didn't pay much attention to the letters at first, but it is said that President McAleer soon became annoyed, though refusing to take action. Wood is a nervous youngster who fears nothing and doesn't believe that harm will come to him. In fact, he thinks the secrets were told to him by jokesters who possibly believe that they might work upon his nerves. Maybe they were dollar buyers.

It was said last night that to protect the Boston players from annoyance by cranks and the curious element a detective agency will provide sentries who will accompany the men from their hotel, Breton Hall, at Broadway and 58th street, to the Polo Grounds and back to the 125th street station, where the special train will be taken after tomorrow's game.

Usually the Red Sox have stopped at a hotel near Broadway and 46th street, but this plan has been abandoned because the players desire to avoid the White Light district and the sporting element.
The Giants, while in Boston, will stop at the Conkey Square Hotel.

SEASONS OF MAJOR LEAGUES AT AN END

Campaigns of National and American Organizations Close Simultaneously.

The thirty-eighth annual campaign of the National Base Ball League and the twelfth annual American League season closed simultaneously yesterday, with the New York and Boston clubs the respective champions by the substantial margins of 70 and 92 points over their closest competitors.

The possibility of a tie between Chicago and Pittsburgh for second place in the National League, or even of Chicago winning the second place honors, continued up to the last game yesterday, but Pittsburgh saved itself by an overwhelming defeat of Cincinnati, and stands three points ahead of the Chicago club in the final standing.

A gap of 119 points, the largest between any two teams in either league, separates Cincinnati from third place. Philadelphia is within 10 points of the Reds, St.
Louis within 30 points of the Phillies, and Boston last, 37 points behind Brooklyn.

In the American League Washington and Philadelphia had a close finish for second place, with the Nationals winning by 10 points. Chicago fell 81 points behind the Athletics, Cleveland 17 points behind the White Sox, Detroit 39 points behind St. Louis, St. Louis 7 points behind the Tigers and New York last, 15 points behind the Browns.

The St. Louis and Chicago American League clubs were the only ones to complete the 154-game schedule, while the New York and Chicago Nationals played the least games—only 151 each. A total of 1,220 games has been played this season.

CHANCE MAY LEAD REDS.

Peerless One Likely to Manage Cin- cinnati Next Year.

CHICAGO, Ill., October 7.—Frank Leroy Chance to lead the Cincinnati Reds in 1913—that's the report flashed Saturday night from the city on the Rhine, and serves to explain the hurried departure from Chicago of President Charles W.
Murphy.

Immediately upon his return last Sunday from New York, Chance issued a dispatch statement on his "retirement" as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, saying that he would be seen in 1913 as manager of some other club in the National League, providing the abyss between himself and Murphy could not be bridged. Judging from the dispatches dated Cincinnati, "Husk" has decided to go through with the retirement.

The long-distance telephone operating between Chicago and Cincinnati was used as the method of communication between Chance and Herrmann, according to the dispatch, after magnate and manager said to have discussed every angle of the race. It is further reported that Murphy encouraged Chance in the latter's overtures to the owner of the Reds.

It is also reported that Chance, during his conversation with Herrmann, asked the latter to negotiate only with the view of buying his Chance's release outright. The veteran manager advised Chance to pay spot cash rather than the talk trade, for Chance holds the present galaxy of Red talent in high esteem.

CORNELL TO BEGIN AGAIN.

Ithacans to Be Put Through Rudi- ments of Foot Ball.

ITHACA, N. Y., October 7.—The Cornell foot ball coaches plan to start all over again in the training of the squad. Following the team's unhappy showing in Saturday's game with Oberlin, the coaches are satisfied that the men do not know the rudiments of foot ball and it is declared they will be made to learn the game anew from the bottom up, even if they lose all of the early-season games.

WILL GIVE PLAYERS EASY WORK TODAY

Many Georgetown Men Stiff
After Saturday's Game With
Mount St. Mary's.

Only an easy workout will be given the foot ball candidates at Georgetown this afternoon, because several of the men are in a weak condition after the game with Mount St. Mary's Saturday.
Beginning tomorrow, all the men on the squad will be worked hard, in anticipation of the game with Washington and Lee next Saturday. It is realized by the coaches at Georgetown that a very hard game is in store for the eleven when it meets this southern team.

With Dave White on hand for practice today, things loom up well on the hilltop.
There is not a better defensive back on the squad and it is expected that he will be in perfect shape for the game. With White in at fullback, and Dunn, Costello, Fury, Campanzi and Murray working with the big fullback, the chances are that some sensational backfield work will be shown by White. It is the plan of the coaches to be exceedingly cautious with White for the rest of the week, using him only in light signal practice.

By Saturday it is expected that he will be in perfect shape for the game. With White in at fullback, and Dunn, Costello,

that some sensational backfield work will be shown by White. It is the plan of
with White for the rest of the week,
using him only in light signal practice.

Dunn showed plainly Saturday that he can be depended upon in Saturday's contest with Washington and Lee. The right for right halfback will be an interesting one. Murray also showed that he must be considered when the selection of the men is finally made. It is the plan of the coaches to give all the men of the squad a look for the end positions is looked for. In Derby, Bergin, Van Brockline, Donnelly and Martin played for Georgetown. They are the best in the South. Bergin played fine ball last year, and is again doing nice work.

Derby is one of the swiftest runners on the squad and is bound to give all the men a run for the position. Van Brockline is doing well, but has been handicapped by injuries. At the present time he has a large ball on his neck which will most likely keep him out for a time.

Georgetown is coming slowly and progressing in a manner which is wholly satisfactory to the coaches. They are satisfied that the Blue and Gray eleven is very anxious to win the one with the Indians, and every effort is to be exerted to win this game. There is a good chance this year, and it is realized that only the hardest kind of work on the part of the men must be done in order to defeat the Redskins.

WHITE SOX THE FAVORITES.
Ed Walsh Looms Up Against Cubs
in Inter-city Series.

CHICAGO, October 7.—The two Chicago major league base ball teams closed their seasons yesterday, each winning, and today will rest in preparation for the city series, which will begin tomorrow. A majority of the local sporting writers place the Cubs as the favorites to win the city championship, giving the preference to the White Sox because of their possession of Ed Walsh on their pitching staff. The big spitball artist is acknowledged by Frank Chance, manager of the Cubs, as the best pitcher in the league.
The Cubs can put up against him. Chance, however, asserts that the famous "inside game" and experience of the Cubs will bring them through, even with an inferior pitching staff, and this is the argument of the National League coaches. The White Sox are younger players than the Cubs, but are figured to suffer somewhat in comparison on the basis of big league experience.

Ed Walsh, however, has a little better on the result, on account of the bad condition the Cub pitching staff is acknowledged to be in.
Interest in the game has increased to an unusually high degree, as the series may be the last appearance with the team of Frank L. Chance. Neither Chance nor Murphy has as yet given out his final statement in the matter, except for Murphy's pronouncement that Chance will not manage the team next year.

Second Place for Pirates.
CINCINNATI, October 7.—Pittsburgh finished in second place in the National League by defeating Cincinnati, 16 to 4, here yesterday afternoon.

Cincinnati used up three pitchers in a vain endeavor to stop the hitting of the visitors. Wagner, Miller and McCarthy starred in this line.

All of the Pittsburgh team hit well and timely. It was the final game of the season. Score:
Pittsburgh..... 3 0 1 0 1 5 2 0 4—16 10 2 Cincinnati..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—6 10 3

Cubs Nose Out Cardinals.
CHICAGO, October 7.—Chicago won the last game of the National League season here yesterday from St. Louis, 4 to 3.

The locals hit Harmon for three runs, a single and triple netting another off Geyer. The visitors scored their three runs by bunting hits off Cheney and Reulbach.
Score:
Chicago..... 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1—4 10 10 St. Louis..... 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 3—10 2

AMERICAN WINS GRAND PRIX.
Herman B. Duryea's Colt Captures $23,000 Purse at Paris.

PARIS, October 7.—Herman B. Duryea's bay colt, Stan on yesterday won the Prix du Conseil Municipal, known as the autumn grand prix, over the Long champs course. The race, which was at one mile and a half, was worth $23,000.
Shannon won by half a length, with Triplett second and Marial third.
August Belmont's Amoreux III finished fourth.
Shannon was an outsider in the betting, but was superbly ridden by Macie.

The Star Will Issue a Special Sporting Edition Tuesday and Will Also Operate an Electric Scoreboard.

A special sporting edition of The Star will be issued Tuesday immediately after the conclusion of the first game of the series for the world's base ball championship. As soon as the last man has been called out in the game between New York and Boston at the Polo Grounds, in New York, patrons of The Star will have at their disposal a complete and detailed account of the play by J. Ed Grillo, who will be present during the entire series. The price of the special edition will be only one cent.

The Star will also operate an electric scoreboard on the 11th street side of The Star building, giving in detail each play as it occurs at the Polo Grounds. Besides the scoreboard, The Star will have a megaphone man, who will announce the happenings on the field which cannot be shown on the board. Many things of interest should be told by him. The game in New York will start promptly at 2 o'clock, and at that time The Star's electric scoreboard will begin to show the progress of the game and will give it play by play until the end. The board will also be operated at each subsequent game.

Everybody is invited to come and join the big crowd which is expected.
